"Tropical Flora"

May 2007

Mary Murray creates her fused glass work in her residence-studio in Laguna Beach. She has been an exhibitor in the Sawdust Art Festival and Winter Fantasy since 2004.

Mary's fused glass plates have been featured in the Studio Arts Gallery's monthly exhibits of glass tableware several times since the gallery opening in October 2006.

"Back Bay"

June 2007

This series of 8 dinner plates or chargers celebrates the riparian habitat in our local Upper Newport Bay Nature Preserve. During the winter, up to 35,000 birds may be using the bay at one time. It is home to 6 rare or endangered species. The artist's proceeds from the sale of these plates was donated to the organization Newport Bay Naturalists & Friends.
